

Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics, Inc. (LEAP)
eLearning Series

21st Century Leader eLearning module

1. Overall Session Goal

Present a new leadership framework and characteristics of an effective 21st century leader in a diverse, multicultural society based on LEAP's leadership philosophy that encourages participants to retain their cultural identity while maximizing their effectiveness.

2. Learning Objectives

- Help participants gain awareness and confidence in their ability to become a 21st century leader
- Understand and discuss the five characteristics of a successful leader in mainstream and multicultural environments based on LEAP's leadership framework
- Discover how cultural values influences behavior and how behavior is perceived by others.
- Learn what behaviors are career enhancing or career limiting
- Identify the best places and methods to develop leadership skills

3. Format

- Self-paced, On-Demand, Web-based
- Interactive with activities, case study scenarios and knowledge checks
- Approximate length: 60 minutes
- Designed to be a blended program with optional local cohort or study groups.

4. Length of eLearning Module:

Approximately 60 minutes

5. Target Audience:

Asian and Asian American professionals

6. Fee:

$190 per person, per module
Bulk seat pricing

To subscribe or for more information, contact:

Linda Akutagawa, LEAP
Phone: 213.485.1422 x 4115
Email: lakutagawa@leap.org

g r o w i n g   l e a d e r s

LEAP eLearning Series Description
3/1/11